Stockholm, Sept. 3. The Baron de Juel, the new Danish Ambassador to this Court, who arrived here on Saturday last from Copenhagen, had Yesterday his first private Audience of the King and Queen. The Senate have ordered a large Sum of Money to be distributed, by way of Gratuity, amongst the Workmen who are employed in rebuilding the Houses that were burnt down by the late great Fires in this City, in order to encourage them to pursue that Work with the greater Vigour. A very curious Firework is preparing here, which is to be played off the Night of the Coronation of their Majesties. Colonel Panin, whom the Empress of Russia sent hither to compliment their Majesties on their Accession to the Throne, has taken his Leave of the King and Queen, and is preparing to set out for Petersbourg.

Vienna, Sept. 7. The Troops encamped in Bohemia are to separate towards the End of this Month, in the mean Time they are constantly exercised every Day. The States of Lower Austria are summoned for the 28th Instant, in order to hold their annual Assembly. A few Days ago General Radicati set out from hence for Moravia, to take upon him the Command of the Troops which are to form a Camp in that Country. The Fathers of the Holy Trinity made a solemn Entry into this City on the 28th past, at the Head of 17 of the Queen of Hungary's Subjects, whom they have lately redeemed from Slavery.

Hague, Sept. 17. The Baron de Burmania, Envoy Extraordinary from this Republick to the Imperial Court, having taken his Leave of her Royal Highness the Princess of Orange, and of the Lords of the Regency, set out from hence on Monday last for Amsterdam, from whence he will continue his Route for Vienna. According to our last Advices from Aix-la-Chapelle, his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange continues to enjoy perfect Health. By our last Letters from Frizeland and Overysiel we are informed, that the late high Winds have forced the Waters so very much in those two Provinces, as to break down the Banks of the Rivers in several Places; and that the Damages occasioned thereby are very considerable.
